

RECOMMENDED DUTIES OF THE SESSION LIAISON PERSON

Background : The Book of Order provides for the appointment of an Elder (or a group of persons including at least one Elder) to act as liaison with the Inquirer/Candidate and with presbytery's Committee on Preparation for Ministry and to participate with the Inquirer/Candidate and presbytery's committee as they explore and evaluate his or her progress in the preparation for ministry (G-14.0306b).

Outlined below are some of the ways in which liaison persons can be of assistance:

1. Learn the background of your Inquirer or Candidate, if you do not already know it: Parents, siblings, school, college, vocational interests and abilities, birthday, name of spouse (if married), name(s) of child(ren) (if any), (proposed) seminary, progress toward ordination, financial needs, etc.
2. Visit, write or phone to introduce yourself.
3. Become acquainted in ways that seem natural to you and the Inquirer/Candidate.
4. Take an interest in his/her academic, field education, annual consultation and other activities related to preparation for the ministry of the Word and Sacrament.
5. Share with the committee, especially at the time of annual consultation, any areas of particular need for Inquirer/Candidate -- whether financial or personal.
6. Become aware of when the Inquirer or Candidate will be home and try to make some contact, even if only a phone call.
7. Identify ways to keep the congregation aware of the names of its Inquirers/Candidates (away at Seminary or at home) who have entered a covenant relationship with the Presbytery and are preparing for ministry of the Word and Sacrament.
8. Initiate conversation with you session on the possibility of providing financial assistance or other tangible support to your inquirers and candidates.
9. Consider, with your session, the possibility of assisting in the payment of necessary expenses incurred in relation to visits for annual consultation with the Committee on Preparation for Ministry
10. If possible, plan to attend the CPM meeting as the person becomes an Inquirer and candidate and attend the Presbytery meeting at which he/she is examined for candidacy.
11. Be present if at all possible at the service of ordination and/or installation.
12. Remember your Inquirer and Candidate in prayer.
13. Write your Inquirer or Candidate on special occasions (e.g. birthdays or anniversaries).
14. Become acquainted with the "Preparation for Ministry" manual so that you are aware of requirements and procedures and can provide timely support (e.g. appearances before Presbytery, Annual Consultation, Presbyteries' Cooperative Examinations, Final Assessment, etc.).
15. Discuss with your Session progress Inquirer/Candidate is making, as reflected in the Summary Report of Annual Consultation prepared by 'the Presbytery Committee on Preparation for Ministry
16. In a word, be a friend and lend to your Inquirer and Candidate a sense of your personal, moral and spiritual interest in, and support of, him/her in training for the ministry of the Word and Sacrament
17. Hopefully, in performing your tasks, you will also grow in grace and faith.
